2005 Earthquake Petite Sirah

WHO: Lodi Vineyards

WHAT: Petite Sirah

WHERE: Lodi, California

WHEN: 2005

This big fruit bomb delivers powerful blackberry and spice with an alcohol punch at 15.5 percent. Fruit bomb has become a derisive term used by lots of wine writers. This is definitely a fruit bomb, but what's wrong with that? Wouldn't it be boring if they were all the same! If you like big wine, its hard not to like Earthquake. HH
