2007 Domaine de Montcy Cheverny – Loire Valley

WHO: Domaine de Montcy

WHAT: Gamay, Pinot noir, Malbec

WHERE: Cheverny, Loire Valley, France

WHEN: 2007

Standing alone this is thin and slightly sour, but as a food wine it comes into its own. It has some light red juiciness and a touch of licorice, but the unique and surprising flavor is a sea-spray saltiness. For many this will be a curiosity, and for some it will be a treat. Pair it with dry-rubbed barbecue on a hot afternoon. DH
