

2009 Dancing Coyote Chenin Blanc – California

WHO: Dancing Coyote

WHAT: Chenin blanc

WHERE: Clarksburg, California

WHEN: 2009

Chenin blanc was big long before chardonnay took over on the west coast but few are producing it today. Dancing Coyote's 2009 Chenin Blanc is a lighter version than many others with nice citrus, particularly lime, and balanced acidity. Frankly, this one is the best I've tasted from California. The winery made just 208 cases. HH
