2008 Reginato "CJR" Blanc de Blancs

WHO: Reginato Winery

WHAT: Chardonnay, Chenin Blanc

WHERE: Argentina

WHEN: 2008

The Chenin Blanc's contribution is apparent in this sparkling wine of medium-light golden yellow, with a floral, cedar-spice nose. There's a moderate mousse, no heavy bubbling action, but persistent small bubbles. It is somewhat fruity in the mouth, with low apparent acidity in the flavor, yet a fairly long, fruity finish, ending with the acidity that was in there all along. This is a wine to drink with a meal. BSE
