2007 Merryvale Pinot Noir

WHO: Merryvale

WHAT: Pinot Noir

WHERE: Carneros, California

WHEN: 2007

Dark cherries, cola, a touch of cranberries, and some mushrooms are on the palate, all with a background of spice, wood, and a teriyaki-like umami. Tannins are fine and sweet. It does not offer delicacy or flow with multiple layers of complexity, just gives you a whack of sweet fruit right in the face. Drink it with a grilled double-thick stuffed pork chop. DH
