

1994 Casa Ferreirinha Reserva

WHO: Casa Ferreirinha

WHAT: Red blend

WHERE: Douro, Portugal

WHEN: 1994

Rich garnet color, barely hinting at orange on the edges. The aromas show the wine's maturity: mushrooms, tobacco, plums and raisins, with fine, fine tannins wrapping things up at the end. A nice bit of freshness on the finish shows that it still had a lot to offer, demonstrating how table wines for the Douro—and not just ports—can age gracefully for a very long time. Recommended. RC

<http://palatepress.com>