

2008 Foppiano Estate Petite Sirah

WHO: Foppiano

WHAT: Petite Sirah

WHERE: Russian River Valley, California

WHEN: 2008

A wine as dark as India ink. Lots of intriguing aromas of anise, dark chocolate, and blackberries. Somewhat tannic, but the fruit comes around; just seems to take longer to emerge. Some black coffee and vanilla flavors in the black fruit. Rich finish. This will benefit from some aging to harmonize. I had with an Indian curry and it worked nicely. Highly recommended. GT
