

Palate Press

The online wine magazine

2007 Morandé Edición Limitada Carignan

WHO: Morandé

WHAT: Carignan

WHERE: Loncomilla Valley, Chile

WHEN: 2007

Inky-dark, with intense blackberry action that's kind of brambly, followed by plums, baking spices, herbs, and violets. It's bold but smooth, has great balance as well as tons of character and concentration that actually seems to have a purpose. Chalk it up to the bush trained, dry farmed vineyards, planted in the 1950s. JR

<http://palatepress.com>