

2007 Stoller Vineyards SV
Estate Pinot Noir

WHO: Stoller Vineyards
WHAT: Pinot Noir
WHERE: Dundee Hills, Oregon
WHEN: 2007

The wine is warm and earthy with a hint of rose in the aroma. Fruit arrives first on the palate, then the underlying char from the barrels. There's a bit of spicy tannin on the finish. With good elements, the wine is still a bit delicate. All in all, this wine has a "narrow spectrum" of flavors, as Bill Stoller put it during a tasting in my kitchen yesterday. We both expect the wine can develop further over the next five years. Okay now, recommended with aging. BSE
