The online wine magazine

2010 Blenheim Vineyards
Viognier

WHO: Blenheim Vineyards

WHAT: Viognier

WHERE: Charlottesville, Virginia

WHEN: 2010

Well-balanced, very aromatic and tropical on the nose but dry and refreshing as you gulp it down happily in the summer heat, it was also one of the closest things to Rhône Viognier I tried all weekend. Well-defined and quite pleasant, it goes well with charcuterie, smoked fish, and spicy Asian food. 20% of the wine is aged in oak—but I couldn't have told you that without reading it. Recommended.
