

NV Sean Thackery Pleiades
XIX Old Vines

WHO: Sean Thackery
WHAT: Red blend (Sangiovese, Syrah,
Mourvèdre, Petite Sirah, etc.)
WHERE: Marin County, California
WHEN: NV

This particular Pleiades (XX has also been released) is a symphonic, multilayered blend that keeps changing at every sip, with spices jumping over red fruit, richness competing with acid, eucalyptus rolling in over earthy, gamey notes. It's unlike anything else, for sure, an unidentifiable drinking object that defies definition and expands the possibilities of what wine can be. Highly recommended. RC
