

2010 Leo Hillinger Zweigelt Burgenland

WHO: Leo Hillinger
WHAT: Zweigelt
WHERE: Austria, Burgenland
WHEN: 2009

Leo Hillinger is a producer in Burgenland boasting a sleek, new modern winemaking and tasting facility built with many sustainable and green design features. This unoaked Zweigelt had a sharp, peppery nose, although I found the palate slightly too herbaceous—more green pepper than black pepper, in other words—and a bit tannic. It perhaps needs a little age to unwind, but nonetheless felt promising. Recommended with reservation. Meg Houston
