

2010 Netzl Zweigelt “Rubin Carnuntum” Carnuntum

WHO: Franz und Christine Netzl
WHAT: Zweigelt
DESIGNATION: Rubin Carnuntum
WHERE: Austria, Niederösterreich, Carnuntum
WHEN: 2010

The vineyard enjoys the tempering influences of Lake Neusiedl and the Danube, producing riper fruit that still retains good acidity. The wine was deep cherry red with extremely elegant aromatics, including a whiff of tropical vanilla, supple red fruits, and dusty earth. It had the most grip of any of this tasting, but the tannins were beautifully textured, playing against the earthy fruits and ripe cherry acidity. The wine was the best integrated, supple, and nuanced of the tasting, and was still all together the following day. The best of tasting. Highly recommended. Meg Houston Maker

<http://palatepress.com>

2010 Netzl Zweigelt “Rubin Carnuntum” Carnuntum

WHO: Franz und Christine Netzl
WHAT: Zweigelt
DESIGNATION: Rubin Carnuntum
WHERE: Austria, Niederösterreich, Carnuntum
WHEN: 2010

The vineyard enjoys the tempering influences of Lake Neusiedl and the Danube, producing riper fruit that still retains good acidity. The wine was deep cherry red with extremely elegant aromatics, including a whiff of tropical vanilla, supple red fruits, and dusty earth. It had the most grip of any of this tasting, but the tannins were beautifully textured, playing against the earthy fruits and ripe cherry acidity. The wine was the best integrated, supple, and nuanced of the tasting, and was still all together the following day. The best of tasting. Highly recommended. Meg Houston Maker

<http://palatepress.com>

2010 Netzl Zweigelt “Rubin Carnuntum” Carnuntum

WHO: Franz und Christine Netzl
WHAT: Zweigelt
DESIGNATION: Rubin Carnuntum
WHERE: Austria, Niederösterreich, Carnuntum
WHEN: 2010

The vineyard enjoys the tempering influences of Lake Neusiedl and the Danube, producing riper fruit that still retains good acidity. The wine was deep cherry red with extremely elegant aromatics, including a whiff of tropical vanilla, supple red fruits, and dusty earth. It had the most grip of any of this tasting, but the tannins were beautifully textured, playing against the earthy fruits and ripe cherry acidity. The wine was the best integrated, supple, and nuanced of the tasting, and was still all together the following day. The best of tasting. Highly recommended. Meg Houston Maker

<http://palatepress.com>

2010 Netzl Zweigelt “Rubin Carnuntum” Carnuntum

WHO: Franz und Christine Netzl
WHAT: Zweigelt
DESIGNATION: Rubin Carnuntum
WHERE: Austria, Niederösterreich, Carnuntum
WHEN: 2010

The vineyard enjoys the tempering influences of Lake Neusiedl and the Danube, producing riper fruit that still retains good acidity. The wine was deep cherry red with extremely elegant aromatics, including a whiff of tropical vanilla, supple red fruits, and dusty earth. It had the most grip of any of this tasting, but the tannins were beautifully textured, playing against the earthy fruits and ripe cherry acidity. The wine was the best integrated, supple, and nuanced of the tasting, and was still all together the following day. The best of tasting. Highly recommended. Meg Houston Maker

<http://palatepress.com>