

Palate Press

The online wine magazine

2007 Domaine C. Ducroux Regnie

WHO: Domaine C. Ducroux

WHAT: Gamay

WHERE: France, Beaujolais, Regnie

WHEN: 2007

Minerals and strawberries, plus a single spray of oil from a key lime rind, blend together beautifully on the nose. The palate opens with a quick startling flavor of beef fat and dark berries, leading to strawberries and plums, along with strong minerality lasting through the finish. This has a velvety richness that would shock so many who think “Beaujolais” is synonymous with “Beaujolais Neveau.” It would be delicious with pork, duck, or even a rich chicken dish.

<http://palatepress.com>