

2007 Rollingdale La Droite

WHO: Rollingdale Winery

WHAT: Merlot, Cabernet sauvignon,
Malbec, Cabernet franc

WHERE: Okanagan Valley, BC

WHEN: 2007

As soon as I brought this wine to my nose, I started enjoying it: aromas of red fruit, wet stones and spice. On the palate I found juicy berries, ripe cherries, plums and spice. The wine filled my mouth with a roundness that wasn't the least bit "mushy"—the acidity made the wine bright and the gentle tannins gave it structure. And boy did it go well with the chicken pot pie. Just one caution: drink it when you pour it. KR

<http://palatepress.com>