

Palate Press

The online wine magazine

2007 Waboomsriver Pinotage – Western Cape, South Africa

WHO: Waboomsriver Wynkelder

WHAT: Pinotage

WHERE: Western Cape, South Africa

WHEN: 2007

The typical Pinotage burnt rubber is nowhere to be found. Instead, it is a very nice glass of sweet toasty black fruit. Wood is obvious but not overwhelming. Instead, it adds a light background of sweet wood-burned maple to plums, boysenberry, and blueberry. This is a good food wine, too, for the sweet wood and fruit are balanced by acids that will happily complement well-marbled beef. DH

<http://palatepress.com>