

2008 Domaine Lecomte Quincy Vielle Vignes – France

WHO: Domaine Lecomte

WHAT: Sauvignon blanc

WHERE: Quincy AOC, Loire, France

WHEN: 2008

Pale straw yellow and aromatic, with a salty, floral nose. On the palate it has brilliant acidity: citrusy, but with pear and basil, too. It tastes like jasmine in full bloom. It offers an herbaceous finish that's spicy but languorous. It takes its time. Restrained and elegant, this wine poses an Old-world counterpoint to the explosively grassy, lemony Sauvignon blancs found in the New. MHM

<http://palatepress.com>