

2009 Pierre Chermette Primeur

WHO: Pierre Chermette

WHAT: Gamay

WHERE: Beaujolais, France

WHEN: 2009

Light raspberry in color, like a cool, late-evening sunset. Smells like my kitchen mid-raspberry jam production, and tastes like the raspberry puree sans heat, with a very, very fresh berry character that borders on herbaceousness. Perhaps someone tossed a few raspberry leaves in with the fruit? Absolutely no tannins, just lots of tangy berry-like astringency on the finish. ES
