2007 V. Sattui Winery Cabernet Franc

WHO: V. Sattui Winery

WHAT: Cabernet Franc

WHERE: Alexander Valley, California

WHEN: 2007

Another star of the Palate Press Grand Tasting, earning a consensus four out of five stars and introducing many of our guests to Cabernet Franc. It was a lean, powerful Cabernet Franc, exhibiting the typical tobacco under clean blackberries and light but clear tannins. This will continue to age nicely for several years. Drink with New York strip steak. It is a particularly good choice for those who prefer their meat medium or more, rather than rare. PP
