

Palate Press

The online wine magazine

2008 Bosman Adama

WHO: Bosman

WHAT: Red blend

WHERE: Wellington, South Africa

WHEN: 2008

A rather fascinating red blend from South Africa. A wine that is fat but racy enough that it doesn't have to go on a diet. A big nose of smoke, bacon fat, and blackberries. Follows through with vanilla and cumin notes and nice tannic structure on the intrigued taste buds. Like all good shows, ends with a big finish. If there ever was a wine to go with BBQ spareribs this is it. GT

<http://palatepress.com>