2008 Sacha Lichine Cabernet Merlot

WHO: Sacha Lichine

WHAT: Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot blend

WHERE: Languedoc-Roussillon, France

WHEN: 2008

Blackberry nuances around the nose but they seem to get cut off by some herbal notes. Fruit-forward, it's a little cluttered on the palate, with cassis flavors battling it out a bit with some briar and red licorice notes, but has some nice silken tones after it has a little time to sort itself out. Tannins are soft and the finish is pleasant. A pleasant quaff, and not a bad value. Try with a roast pork or grilled chops. Recommended. GT
