

Palate Press
The online wine magazine

2009 Ptujška Klet Pullus Modri Pinot Noir

WHO: Pullus

WHAT: Pinot Noir

WHERE: Slovenia

WHEN: 2009

Warm, inviting aroma of cooked fruit with a trace of earthiness. Medium-light body, light structure. Flavor starts out mild but grows in intensity, with strawberry notes. Finishes long and hot—though it's only 12.5% alcohol—and ultimately plummy. A cross between new world and old world pinot noir, in the best way. Good summer drinking. Recommended. BSE

<http://palatepress.com>