

2010 Ramey Cabernet Sauvignon, Pedregal Vineyard

WHO: Ramey
WHAT: Cabernet Sauvignon
WHERE: Oakville, Napa Valley, California
DESIGNATION: Pedregal Vineyard
WHEN: 2010

A baby that shows every sign of being a great grownup when it fully matures. Deep purple with a seductive nose of blackcurrants, chocolate, and rosemary. Great gobs of blackberry fruit and pistachios on the palate, with balanced tannins. Finishes beautifully and languorously. This has not yet been released at the time of tasting (a barrel sample), and will require at least another 5-8 years of aging to reach its apogee. But when it does, it will be glorious. Very Highly Recommended. GT
