Chassagne-Montrachet Clos
Devant

WHO: Rene Lequin-Colin
WHAT: Chardonnay
WHERE: Chassagne-Montrachet , Côte de
Beaune, Burgundy, France
WHEN: 2008

This is a single vineyard, Clos Devant, white Burgundy from Chassagne Montrachet. It is translucent, with a light golden hue. The nose has an apple pie and caramel sweetness with a lovely white flower bouquet. The palate offers up rich flavors, starting with baked apples, adding creme brûlée and Meyer Lemon on the mid-palate, all with underlying toast and smoke. Gardenias, sweet lemon, and creme brûlée linger on the lasting finish. Acids are very good. This is a good food wine or a delicious sipper. Drink
