2009      Domaine      Debray
Bourgogne Hautes Côtes-de-
Beaune

WHO: Domaine Debray
WHAT: Pinot Noir
WHERE: Côtes-de-Beaune, Burgundy,
France
WHEN: 2009

A true low-alcohol Bourgogne for half the price of a tooth-staining California pinot. True balance and minerality. Strawberries, some raspberries, and damp black earth shoveled over hot coals show on the nose. Muted fruit on the palate, raspberries and strawberries along with smoky earth and sage and marjoram. Bright acids and cranberry on the finish. A lot of complexity here, particularly for the price. Should reward patience in the cellar. Drink with pork loin. Recommended.
